

The Basics of Judaism

(aka: Adult B'nai Mitzvah Course)

It is a tree of life to those who hold fast to it, and all its supporters are happy. Its ways are ways of pleasantness and all its paths are peace.

-- Proverbs 3:18

Every few years Temple Beth Israel offers a Basics of Judaism course for adults. Some think of this as an adult B'nai Mitzvah Class. Some use it as an introduction to the fundamentals of Judaism. Some see it as a “refresher” course to “remember” what they learned in confirmation years ago.

Rabbi Weinberg will teach this 18 month course beginning September 2016 on Sunday mornings 11:00 am – 12 noon according to our Bet Midrash (Religious School) calendar. Those class members who chose to participate in the Adult B'nai Mitzvah service will also be expected to have (or gain) a basic reading knowledge of Hebrew. This service will take place during Temple Beth Israel's 100th anniversary celebration year.

Please note: TBI Adult Hebrew classes are available to be taken on Sundays during the 18 months of the Adult B'nai Mitzvah Class
