

Adult Education At A Glance

For March 2019

Jewish Learning for Jewish Living

Sunday Seminars and Special Events for March, 2019

Parent Education – "Chai" Lights of our school Curriculum (Taught for adults) March 17, 2019 (10:00AM)

Curious about what the kids are learning in Sunday school? Join Rabbi Weinberg for this three part series for discussion and conversation about three key tenets of the Temple Beth Israel Religious school "Chai Curriculum" - Torah, Avodah (Worship), and G'milut Chasadim (acts of loving kindness).

The Lighter Side of Yiddish - Wednesday, March 27, 2019 (12:00PM)

Enjoy a deli lunch ($10) while you learn the interesting origins of many popular Yiddish words and phrases and what they really mean. Our member, Harold Levine, will also relate amusing anecdotes about some popular Yiddish expressions. Harold will also reveal how the Lone Ranger & Tonto and Captain Midnight greatly inspired his interest in Yiddish. This presentation will be informative and entertaining and will include some things that your grandmother never taught you. RSVP required.

On going learning

Hebrew language classes (Most Sunday Morning when Bet Midrash is in session 9:00am, 10:00am, 11:00am) Large Study

Interested in studying Hebrew? Studied in the past but ready to brush up? Come and study Hebrew in this supportive atmosphere with Rabbi Jim Sagarin. This class is available to anyone who is interested in learning no matter the level. (Modern Hebrew - 9am; Beginning Hebrew – 10am; Advanced Hebrew – 11am) Contact Rabbi Jim Sagarin for placement. James.sagarin@gmail.com

Books of Samuel Torah 101 – (Most Sunday Morning when Bet Midrash is in session - 9:00am) Kiddush Room

If you missed the First Book of Samuel last year, rest easy, as Torah 101 will take up a reading of The Second Book of Samuel this season beginning on Sunday September 16th from 9-10:00am. Led by congregants for congregants and requiring no previous knowledge, we will meet every Sunday during the school year, in order to read one short chapter together and then talk about its interpretation, both from a historical point of view as well as its meaning and relevance for us today. Some of the themes raised by this very important Biblical text include the origins of political power, the values underlying moral leadership, the corruptibility of leaders, the nature of love and friendship and our connection to a higher power. Please join us for a spirited discussion in which all viewpoints are welcome. The class does not require any permanent commitment and all are encouraged to drop by at any point during the semester.

Questions regarding an Adult Education Program? Contact:

Richard Rotberg (YOAHV@aol.com) or

Wendy Fox (wfox@arielinvestments.com)

For Hebrew Class placement:

Rabbi Jim Sagarin (james.sagarin@gmail.com)

Temple Beth Israel

3601 W Dempster St

Skokie IL 60076

847.675.0951