

TBI's Adult Education Committee & Brotherhood presents

Margaret McMullan

Internationally acclaimed author and columnist Margaret McMullan will speak to us about her new memoir, Where The Angels Lived: Our Family's Story of Loss, Exile and Return.

Where the Angels Lived beautifully documents the relentless determination of a woman picking up the pieces of her family's fragmented history throughout the Hungarian Holocaust.

Sunday, September 22,
2019
10 am
Mendelsohn Hall @
Temple Beth Israel

"The destruction of the Jews in the country districts of Hungary was a simple business. The Germans made good use of their experience gained annihilating between three to four million Polish, German and Austrian Jews."

Join us for a delicious lox and bagels breakfast at 9 am.
Cost: $5/person
RSVP to the Temple office by Wednesday, September 18.