

What's Jewish About Hereditary Cancer?

THURSDAY, MARCH 12

6 p.m. Reception & resource fair

7 p.m. Program begins

Marriott Suites Deerfield

2 Parkway North, Deerfield

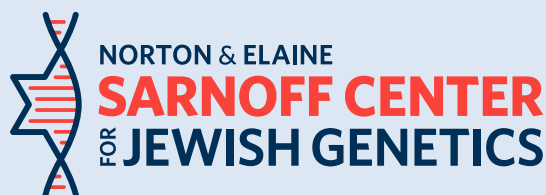

Arm yourself with information at this panel program, featuring:

- Genetic counselor Taya Fallen, MS, LCGC
- Community member Iris Bass
- Social worker Rebecca Koren, LCSW
- Gynecologist Shari Snow, MD
- Moderated by Ellen B. Carmell, Executive Director of the Jewish Women's Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago

REGISTER juf.org/hereditary

Cost: Free • Advance registration required

Questions? jewishgenetics@juf.org • 312-357-4718

The Norton & Elaine Sarnoff Center for Jewish Genetics is a supporting foundation of the Jewish United Fund, and is supported in part by the Michael Reese Health Trust.

