

Days of Awe Enrichment Experiences for Adults

Selichot - Saturday, September 9

7:00 p.m. - Study Session, followed by dessert reception

Middot HaRachamim - Divine Attributes

Human Traits - Middot Enoshi'im

Led by Cantor Richard and Marsha Cohn

9:00 p.m. - Selichot Worship

Tashlich - Sunday, September 17 at Harms Woods

4:30 p.m. - Tashlich

(We will be meeting at the north parking lot on Harms Road just south of Glenview Road; additional parking is also available off of Old Orchard Road)

We are thrilled to be able to offer a multigenerational Tashlich service at Harms Woods. During Tashlich, we symbolically cast off all of the ways that we missed the mark last year by throwing bread crumbs into living waters. During this ritual you can expect quality time with our community as we sing, reflect, and welcome the new year together.

Avodat HaLeiv - Yom Kippur Afternoon

3:00 p.m. on Yom Kippur afternoon at ETHS

This service, led by Rabbi Marks and Cantor Cohn is vibrantly creative and deeply rooted in Jewish tradition. It will offer a nourishing experience of spiritual renewal, as we move toward the conclusion of our most holy day.
